Welcome to SALT Festival 2019

Southern Eyre Arts are proud to launch an incredible range of events from contributors across our wonderful creative community, both here and far. SALT presents a range of major event highlights in the 2019 program including a range of elements for children and young people.

SALT

FESTIVAL 2019

COASTAL EYRE is our signature exhibition by photographer Joseph Puglisi, who brings to life images from his highly successful book of the same name. The SALT Shaker gallery space also features Leith O'Malley artworks and is the place to visit during SALT to chill out, share coffee and connect with the exquisite range of events in our 2019 program.

The program features a daily guide to SALT Festival as well as a list of exhibitions open throughout. We are proud to present SALT STAGE. Groove to hip-hop heavyweight DRAPHT, and Triple J artist ADRIAN EAGLE, both featured on songs by HILLTOP HOODS supported by local band Ethnic Cowboys. The popular Germein sisters have relaunched as GERMEIN and bring new music to share in a gig not to be missed with folk star Karin Page presented by our major sponsor BEYOND BANK.

Plunge UNDER THE SURFACE with an interactive installation exhibition experience looking at what's under the Jetty and the ocean around us. Celebrate and explore our seafood and fishing industry with UPWELLING, a symposium which will present innovation in our sustainable fishing and aquaculture sectors.

NIGHT IN THE STARS events return with Australia's leading ethno-astronomer Paul Curnow showing us the Night Sky and presenting talks on Aboriginal Skies and the Cosmos of Ancient Egypt. There is lively Comedy Acts, Easter Egg Hunts, Wellbeing Events, Art Therapy and Artisan workshops, Theatre, and a Climate Change Action Summit. Plan your SALT Festival in advance and note that some events repeat in the program. Choose a schedule that suits you.

Thank you to our contributors, event coordinators, artists, performers, sponsors and supporters who make SALT possible. Huge THANK YOU to our major sponsors Beyond Bank, Port Lincoln City Council, District Council of Lower Eyre Peninsula, Inspiring South Australia, our media partners, and our philanthropic benefactors the SEA SALTANS. This year's SALT Festival is an extraordinary showcase of art, innovation and creativity proving that truly anything is possible!

SALT SHAKER

Feature Artist in The Shaker gallery space is the amazing Joe Puglisi with photographs from his Coastal Eyre series launched in print in 2018. Whyalla artist Leith O'Malley and contributor of the SALT poster image will also present his unique style. SALT Shaker is the Festival hub space for you to enjoy comedy, music, workshops, theatre and wellbeing events. You can book your tickets, collect programs and receive guidance from our SALT Team plus enjoy programmed and pop-up events. A licensed venue where you can share coffee, relax, connect and explore.

OPEN DAILY: APRIL 19 – 28.

Find us on the corner of Tasman Terrace and Eyre Street (behind the yacht club) in PORT LINCOLN

SALT STAGE

With a platinum record, multi-platinum and gold singles and two ARIA already under his belt, Drajt is a musical prodigy. Drajt demonstrates songwriting flair and linguistic dexterity. Each of his five subsequent albums – Who Am I (2005), Brothers Grimm (2008) and Life Of Riley (2010) Seven Mirrors (2016) and Arabella Street (2018) – brought increasing levels of complexity and refinement, ascending Drajt to the absolute upper echelon of Australia's stacked card of hip-hop heavyweights. Drajt is supported by acclaimed HIPHOP ROOTS artist ADRIAN EAGLE garnering widespread acclaim for his breakout single and video 17 Again. Adrian's guest appearance on the legendary Hilltop Hoods ARIA Award winning single Clark Griswold and a massive national and international touring schedule made 2018 a landmark year for this emerging Adelaide bred singer-songwriter. Local band Ethnic Cowboys will bring their own hip-hop style to the event.

SPLIT

A collaboration of photographic images and their 'Copyright' Counterparts in paint. The true image and the interpretation. Local Photographers and Artists have collaborated to bring you a visually exceptional exhibition. OPENING THURSDAY 18TH APRIL 6:30PM At 2 KING STREET PORT LINCOLN.

UNDER THE SURFACE

SALT Festival & Inspiring South Australia presents Under the Surface; a multimedia exhibition uncovering the marine life that depends on the Port Lincoln town jetty and its connections with the wider ocean, commercial fisheries and community through artistic interpretation, video installation and science communication.

DOCTOR TIMOR ESCAPE ROOM

Do you suffer from phobia, fears and fright why not try Doctor Timor's radical, miraculous fear therapy?

Join Passionis Productions for a night of fearful fun with their newest event Doctors Timor's Escape room. Walk the hospital halls and make your way to the treatment room. Can you escape before your appointment ends?

EUGENIA LIM

The Ambassador features Australian artist Eugenia Lim's most recent body of work at Nautilus Art Centre. In this three-part project, Lim transforms herself into the Ambassador, a Mao-like persona who sits halfway between truth and fantasy. She takes on new roles in uncovering the Australian-Asian narrative, drilling down into racial politics, the social costs of manufacturing and the role of architecture in shaping society.

GERMEIN and KARIN PAGE

South Australian siblings Germein - Georgia (guitar, keys), Ella (electric cello, bass) & Clara (drums), bring their edgy brand of indie pop rock songs to the SALT Festival, following the release of their addictive single 'Talking'. Finessed tight harmonies, succinct guitar combinations and a soaring chorus sure to delight with a divine musical experience. A truly gifted songwriter, Karin Page's songs appeal to a broad range of music lovers as she seamlessly weaves several styles together. Refreshing and honest, Karin's music can be intimate and emotional, as well as inspiring you to get up and dance. Proudly supported by Beyond Bank.

NIGHT IN THE STARS – ABORIGINAL SKIES AND COSMOS OF ANCIENT EGYPT

Explore the night sky with leading ethno-astronomer Paul Curnow [B.ED] lecturer at Adelaide Planetarium since 1992.

After 28-years of research, he is regarded as one of the world's leading authorities on Australian Aboriginal night sky knowledge and stories. An Honorary Life Member of the Astronomical Society of South Australia for his contributions to astronomy, Paul appears regularly in the media and has authored over 50 articles on astronomy. This year Paul presents three events including his Night Skies presentation in the dark at Ravensdale, plus Aboriginal Skies and Cosmos of Ancient Egypt lectures at the SHAKER.

HOMEGROWN

Home Grown – from SEED comes a rich harvest of youth music. 2018 SALT featured SEED by the Port Lincoln Arts Council... the garden has been nurtured, the artists have grown and it's time to harvest the tunes of Headspin, Rafikee, Tascha Jordison and others in a night of music at Beer Garden Brewing. Don't miss Home Grown and a chance to see these talents bloom.

PICO UNDER THE CORAL SEA

Experience an underwater exploration puppet show for kids who love the ocean in a story where PICO meets the creatures of the sea. Shows in Coffin Bay, Cummins and Port Lincoln.

Innovation & Sustainability

UPWELLING will bring together representatives of our local fishing and aquaculture industry, keynote speakers and fisheries managers to provide information on the current and future needs and opportunities of our local seafood sector. Port Lincoln is uniquely placed as a seafood industry hub. You will learn about the science that underpins the status of local fish stocks and how these resources connect our community, as well as the social and cultural benefits of fishing and aquaculture.

CLIMATE CHANGE ACTION SUMMIT

Global warming, climate change, emissions reduction schemes, and energy sector transformation are themes dominating current social and political arenas. WE SEE WHAT YOU SEE will be a national call for immediate action on climate change.

*SALT Festival
acknowledges and respects the Traditional Owners of the ancestral
